

petites furries

Zététique Théâtre

ENGLISH VERSION

PETITES FURIES (LITTLE FURY)

DANCE/THEATER PLAY FOR CHILDREN FROM 2.5 TO 6 YEARS OLD.

PRIZE WINNER (CHILDHOOD CATEGORY)- RENCONTRES DE THÉÂTRE JEUNES PUBLICS - HUY 2014

A PLAYFUL DANCE SHOW ABOUT ANGER AND FRIENDSHIP OR HOW TO TRANSFORM FURY INTO GLEE, FITS OF ANGER INTO FLASHES OF FUN.

It shakes you up.
It takes your breath away.
It turns yourself inside out.
It turns yourself red, black, green with envy...
It transforms: kids-tigers; babies-dragons. It has that power.
It can hide itself in a tear. Or it can make as much noise as fireworks.
It sometimes stinks.
But it always passes away...

Anger, it is.

Two dancers are making a mess and invite us in their universe made of little pieces. Sometimes they are in collusion, sometimes they fight. Anyway, they take us in a rebellious and playful dance, during which they will alternately taste the sour and the sweet.

Director: Justine Duchesne
Dancers: Melody Willame & Estelle Bibbo
Technician: Julien Legros OR Jonas Luyck
Stage design: Valérie Perin
Pictures: Jean-François Flamey

Video recording

<http://vimeo.com/116632007>

<http://vimeo.com/116340302>

The video is in two parts.
You have to login with the password: reprise

PRACTICAL INFORMATIONS:

Duration of the piece: 40 min

Maximum number of audience: 90

Minimum stage size: 6,5 x 6 x 3,5 m

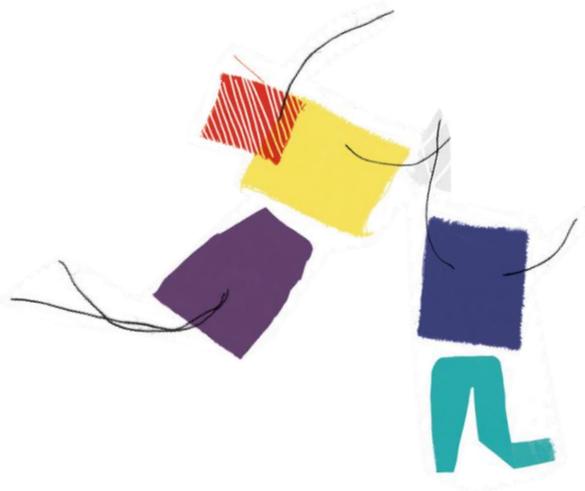

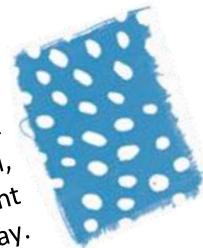

REVIEWS:

We recognize so well on this stage what happens in the playgrounds; at that age, anger can be as intense as friendship can be strong. That's what this sparkling duo of dancers experiment in the show, with a wonderful energy. Very funny, the songs fit perfectly to this little wonder. It gives back to the emotions their right importance.

Liberating!

(S. Colasse, Le ligueur, 09/2014)

Petites furies is an exhilarating exploration of the body, the emotions and the matter. Far from the contemporary dance which is sometimes conceptual, the show proposes to approach the movement concretely, in a carnal and dynamic way.
(L. Bertels, La Libre Belgique, 08/2014)

Petites Furies gives a wonderful envy, not reprehensible at all: to wiggle, to dance. On a tremendous soundtrack, the dancers transform fury in glee, fits of anger in flashes of fun. Children (but mostly parents) will love that!
(C. Makereel, Le soir, 08/2014)

THE COMPANY:

Zététique Théâtre is a Belgian theater company situated in Liège.

Created by Luc Dumont in 1986, the company is celebrating its 30 years of life. Zététique Théâtre, it's a team with complementary skills and different sensibilities which influence the work and make the spirit of the company.

Through theater and dance, we want to tell stories, to make people question the world and the way things go.

We cherish contemporary writing and believe in the strength of acting. Acting allows us to be impertinent and audacious. Besides this, we propose contemporary dance with very young children and in our plays for teenagers. In all our works we want to make senses and sensibility connected.

Next to the plays we love to stay as much as possible in contact with our public. We nourish our creations of these interactions. Through workshops we try to hear their concerns and expectations, to share our thoughts and explore new fields.

©J-M Flamey

ZETETIQUE THEATRE ASBL

RUE DES FRANCHIMONTOIS 47- 4000 LIÈGE (BELGIUM)

T: +32 4 227 63 49

ZETETIQUETHEATRE@GMAIL.COM

WWW.ZETETIQUETHEATRE.BE

